Guyana: Herstelling Compassionate Center

Update on Herstelling NCM (Guyana) to January 2010

We have added four (4) projects to the completed projects list.

December 2009 Groceries Love Basket

Our NCM gave relief to 33 families targeting the elderly; widowed and unemployed families in Industry and the East Bank of Demerara through our Nazarene church. We delivered a Christmas groceries basket and funds for a Christmas Chicken ($30 USD per basket). This basket included:- meat; rice; flour; potato; butter; dry beans; tooth-paste; bath soap; curry powder; milk ; oil; fruit punch; chowmein; garlic; onions; salt and sugar and tomato paste.

Christmas 2009 Christmas Gift for Children

(Planned for Christmas 2008 but deferred to 2009). It was a joy to provide a gift to brighten up the kids Christmas personally. We delivered over 200 toys; games; cd players; back packs and water bottles to kids in 5 areas East Bank Demerara (Mocha and Herstelling); RB Hill in the hills of Timheri; Industry on the East Coast of Demerara and Paramakatoi community deep in the jungles of Guyana. (Such a project typically costs $10 USD per child including shipping)

Summer 2009 Medical Care Project

Our NCM gave relief to 18 individuals with various illnesses including hypertension; heart issues; arthritis and diabetes. We were able to provide funding ($35 USD per need) to assist with the medical care of persons in the Herstelling community. This was a project funded by one of our members living in the Caribbean who desired such a medical relief program. A USA based member has sent funds to help with another such project in 2010.
